WILMINGTON, MASS., THURSDAY, JUNE 3, 1971

FIFTEEN CENTS

Selectmen Meet Tonight

Wilmington's Board of Selectmen are to have a special meeting tonight at 6, in the Town Hall, for the purpose of calling a Special Town Meeting, the main purpose of which will be to ask for authority to plan an addition to the High School.

Although there is no authority for the statement, the understanding in the Town Hall is that the Selectmen will allow several days to elapse before they 'close' the warrant of the Special Town Meeting. In the past few years there have been Selectmen who have had a habit of closing the Warrant for Special Town Meetings immediately after they have been called, and before any citizen could file articles for the meeting.

The Wilmington Planning Board has seven articles to file, and Mr. Gillis of that board is talking of submitting an article having to do with roadside signs.

It is also understood that the Wilmington Conservation Commission is considering the submission of an article calling for Flood Plain Zoning.

Beach Opens June 12

Recreation Director Ken Zucker has announced that the Town Beach on Silver Lake will open on Saturday, June 12th at 10 a.m. Beach hours will be from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., daily, and 12 noon to 8 p.m. on Sundays.

The beach is open to residents only. Identification such as a drivers license will be required to show proof of residence.

All children under 10 years of age must be accompanied by a person at least 14 years old. Floats, balls, bottles, cans, snorkels or masks will not be allowed in the water.

Beach rules will be enforced by the lifeguards and other beach personnel.

EMBR BUYS READING BUILDING FOR OFFICE

The Eastern Middlesex Board of Realtors has purchased the building at 13 Union St., Reading to be used as the EMBR office.

EMBR, which anticipates occupancy by September, is the second local board in the Commonwealth to acquire quarters for its own office.

SURPLUS FOOD PROGRAM APPLICATIONS JUNE 15TH

Applications for the Surplus Food Program will be taken on the second Tuesday of June at the Baptist Church Hall from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

This schedule will be followed each month as long as there is a demand for these applications.

THE SILVER STAR DISPLAYED: On the chest of Ralph Zwicker III, former corporal, U.S.M.C. (left) during the Memorial Day Parade. Ralph, who received the medal two weeks ago, was a Color Guard for the American Legion and Auxiliary, on Memorial Day.

Baseball Co-Champs

The Wilmington High varsity baseball squad has been declared co-champs of the MVC along with Burlington following the Red Devils 3-2 win over Billerica last Wednesday. Both clubs finished their regular season with 11 and 5 records and each will represent the conference in the State Tourney, which gets underway this weekend.

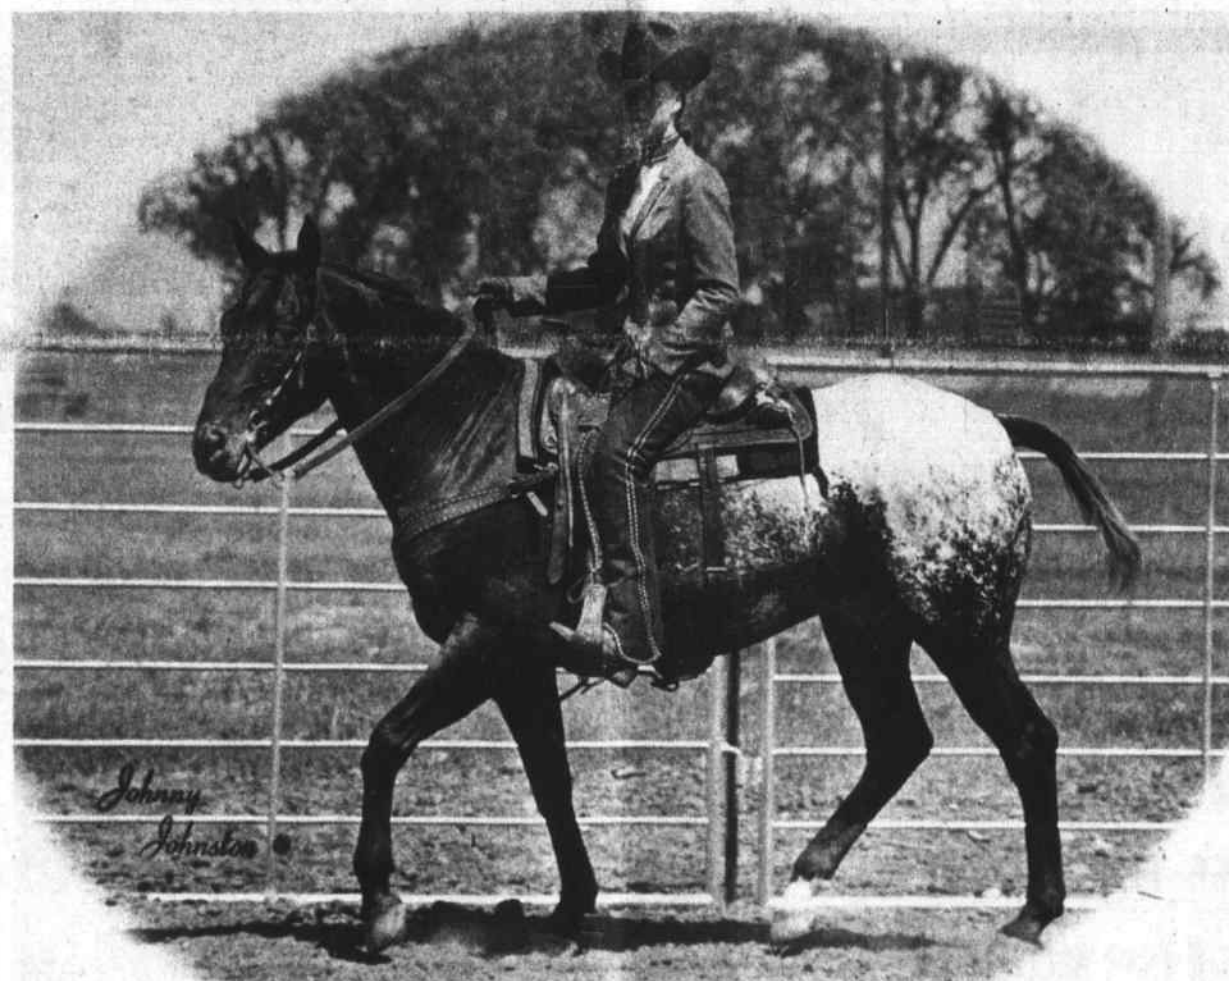

By virtue of a coin toss Burlington gained the number one position and as a result will host Swampscott, Northeastern Conference runner-up Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Coach Gilligan's Wildcats travel to Danvers to play the Northeastern Conference champs in another afternoon tilt. The game time for the Wilmington-Danvers game is listed for 3 o'clock at Twilight Field, Rte. 62 in Danvers.

It is expected that Coach Gilligan will go with senior southpaw Bill Gustus (5-2), while Coach Jack McGrath will start his ace Chuck Flint. Righthander Rick Gearty (5-2) should be fully recovered from his ankle injury and ready in case Gustus runs into any difficulties.

In the final team statistics released on Monday, Gearty led the team in hitting with a .307 average followed by Tom Beaton (.294), Artie Bibeau and Jim Irwin at .273 each. Gearty in 50 innings of pitching whiffed 45 batters while walking only 16 in hurling seven complete games. Gustus pitched 48 innings, had 35 strike-outs and 21 walks in his seven complete games.

Coach Gilligan's probable lineup will have Dave Stewart (1B), Hal Stewart (2B), Tom Beaton (SS) and Jim Irwin (3B) in the infield, while Rich Gearty (LF), Tom Mirisola (CF) and Artie Bibeau (RF) should comprise the outfield and Tom Southmayd will probably catch the servings of Bill Gustus.

A New England Champ

MISS CHRISTINE EMERY: Of the Butters Farm on Chestnut Street, the 1970 New England Stock Seat Equitation champion, is undefeated this far, in 1971. She is also the Yankee Appaloosa Association High Point Youth, for 1970.

How did that Right of Way get there?

A Right-of-Way is in effect legal permission to travel over land owned by another person. It appears on maps of some land, on occasion, and there are, as can be expected, several legal complexities involving such Rights-of-Way.

On April 8, 1969, - two years ago plus a little time, the Wilmington Planning Board signed a plan for a plot of land in North Wilmington, off Lexington Street. The plan was to be submitted to the Land Court, which is the ultimate authority on land ownership in Massachusetts. There was no Right-of-Way shown on the plan.

That plan showed up in the Planning Board meeting Tuesday night, and there was a Right-of-Way across one corner. Danny Gillis, who tends to get excited over misdeeds on the part of others - actual or real - got excited over this one.

"People", he said, "Who change things over my signature will get in trouble!"

He made a motion, and the board voted unanimously to ask the Town Counsel to investigate.

Chairman Mort Grant told Gillis, after the vote, that the present owner of the land is objecting to people using that Right-of-Way, and had checked in the Middlesex Registry of Deeds, where there seemed to be no record of such an easement for a Right-of-Way.

That, said Grant, was why he had brought the plan to the meeting.

Other Business

Town Engineer Arthur Harding informed the Planning Board that in a few weeks he hopes to have the contracts for the completion of Marcia Road, etc., and Kenwood Ave. and Englewood Drive. Four or five dry-wells have been constructed on Marcia Road, he said, and a few are yet to be done.

Zane Bower, who lives in the new Wildwood Park, had a list of 16 discrepancies for the Park. The contractor has not yet received repayment on his $5000 bond, required before construction could start, and Bower's list included such things as broken sidewalks where boundary stones had been put in. On motion of Danny Gillis it was discussed in an executive session.

The Board noted that the Smithcraft sign, on Industrial Way, had been up before the Board of Appeals, for a continuance, and the Appeal Board had denied such continuance, after two years.

It was reported that the Conservation Commission is planning to introduce an article calling for Conservancy Districts, in the coming special Town Meeting. Relative to this report the Town Engineer reported that he had given a list of the properties along the Shawsheen River to a lady from Billerica who was working on a project about the river - "the same list and photos I gave the Conservation Commission."

It was voted to send a letter to Mrs. Rene LaRivee, expressing the regret of the members on the loss of her husband.

The Board went into executive meeting to discuss the Master Plan.

Remember When

Friend's Baker wagon from Melrose would change horses at George Buck's on Church St., before going the Wilmington route.

The oil man from Wakefield delivered cylindrical gallon cans of kerosene to keep the lamps going. In the winter punts were used, to which children hitched their sleds for a free ride.

When noon time came the horse pulling a wagon would be pulled up in the shade and fed his luncheon oats in a nose bag. Dr. Buzzell's pink pills and hearty laugh after telling a joke.

Kate Croteau, telephone operator at exchange in Buck Bros. No. Wilmington.

Old Mrs. Spalding of Billerica driving her horse down with baskets of apples to sell.

Every Saturday morning old George Taylor and Everett Avery taking the car to Lowell to do their week's shopping.

More to come.

Mrs. Otto Bischoff

It was Frank who did the Walking

Nearly everyone in Wilmington knows Francis Kelley. He is the extremely pleasant math teacher in Wilmington High School. He walks with a limp, coaches the boys in cross-country running, has a pleasant word for all and perhaps the best mannered classes in Wilmington High.

Recently someone took a picture of Francis and Ronald Colbert, president of the High School Student Council, examining a check. There was a story, and a hint that Francis could be checking on the check (as a math teacher, of course).

So the story was wrong. It said he was checking on the computations of the money raised by school students, in the March for Hunger.

The check was for Frank's march. He, personally, hiked from Billerica Common through Wilmington to Shedd Park in Lowell, a distance of 17.2 miles. He was paid at the rate of $10 a mile by the High School Student Council, and the $172 he raised went with the money raised by the pupils to the March for Hunger fund - all told, from Wilmington, the sum of money was in the thousands.

Diane Fielding and the Reading Light

625 SIGNATURES ON PETITION

Mrs. Diane Fielding of Hopkins Street, who for the past several weeks has been engaged in a campaign to correct seeming inequities in electric light bills, obtained 625 signatures, last weekend in a petition drive at the Wilmington Plaza. She was assisted by Ronald Heyman of Columbia Street, Mrs. Walter Bristol of Shawsheen Ave., and Mrs. Charles Ritchie and Mrs. William Kavanaugh of Kelley Rd.

The petition is to be presented to the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, in an effort to get a public hearing on electric light and power charges in Wilmington.

People in Reading and North Reading, Mrs. Fielding reports, have been calling her, in response to the various newspaper articles printed in recent weeks. Those people, she says, are now planning similar programs in their towns.

Mrs. Fielding is to appear on Channel 7 next Tuesday, between 9 and 10 a.m., on the Paul Benzaquin Show. Her subject, of course, will be electric light rates, and a representative of the Reading Light, and a Wilmington housewife as yet unnamed, are also to appear on the same show.

A meeting is to be held Saturday, at 3 p.m., in the American Legion Hall, by supporters of Mrs. Fielding.

A spokesman for the Reading Light is to be present, she says, and anyone is welcome to come to the meeting.

JANE BREAU ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Breau of 41 North Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane D. Breau to Stephen A. Greenlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Greenlaw of 73 Gary Ave., Haverhill.

Miss Breau is a graduate of Wilmington High School and is presently attending Northern Essex Community College.

Mr. Greenlaw is a graduate of Haverhill High School. He is also attending Northern Essex.

No date has been set for the wedding.

May was a Big Month for Burglaries

The month of May may have been one of flowers, and showers, in Wilmington.

It was also one of burglaries. Thieves, roaming the town in inconspicuous automobiles, committed a total of 31 forcible entries into homes, in which were taken color tv sets, silverware and money.

The Wilmington police recorded two more cases in which no force was used, and seven attempted entries.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO WATER USERS

June 30, 1971 is the final day for receipt of payment of water bills issued in 1970 and late charges thereon. After this date the amounts will be removed from the Water Department books and will appear on the 1971 tax bills as water liens. (Chapter 40, Section 42C - General Laws)

The former Belmont High athlete and Notre Dame Alumnus was honored by the Sons of Italy Lodge for his many contributions to Wilmington High Athletics during the past fifteen years.

Football teams of Wilmington, coached by Bellissimo, have won five Merrimack Valley Conference championships, since 1961, and have also won a pair of Class "C" (Massachusetts) championships, in 1962 and 1970.

Softball (WRSL)

In Division II play last Thursday night the K of C belted Brewsters, 8-5 for their second seasonal win without a loss, while handing the Lumber Men their third consecutive loss. Dick Elliott was the winning hurler. MacMullin (K of C) and Swenson (Brewsters) hit the only homers in the game. In a Division I game Eeloury Construction broke a 3-3 tie, pushing across four runs in the top of the seventh for a 7-3 win in their opening game. The second DeLoury-Miceli game was rained out.

Tuesday night at the Town Park, Silver Lake maintained its half game lead in Div. II with a 12-2 win over NAPA, while Brewsters upset Diamond Crystal 9-8 in 10 innings. The Sons of Italy, led by the power hitting of Rick Proton (3 for 3 and 4 rbi's), belted the Highway Department, 17-1.

Girls End Softball Season

The varsity softball squad concluded its dismal season Tuesday afternoon losing an 18-17 game to Dracut. The girls finished the season with a 1-8 record including a seven game losing streak. Last week the varsity dropped an 11-7 decision to Burlington as the Red Devils broke open a close 6-5 game scoring five runs in the fifth inning.

A week ago today the girls played their best game of the season despite losing 5-4 to Methuen. Methuen's runs were all unearned as the Wildcats out-hit the female Rangers 8-4. Wilmington had one run in the sixth inning, to go ahead 4-2, but the winners rallied for 3 runs in the bottom of the seventh.

In losing a slugfest to Dracut in extra innings Tuesday the girls blew leads of 7-1 and 14-13 as their porous defense allowed Dracut to win. Joan Bellissimo slammed out five hits including a first inning grand slam while Steph Langone belted a solo hit in the fifth to provide the batting support.

Gridiron Club to Run Carnival

The newly created Gridiron Club of Wilmington in conjunction with the Recreation Commission will sponsor a carnival on June 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 at the Town Beach.

The purpose of the carnival is to raise funds to send the high school football players to camp this summer. The Recreation Department will run races on Saturday and Sunday, June 12 and 13 while the carnival is in operation.

As a special feature all rides on Saturday and Sunday will be half price. An extra added event will be a fireworks display on a night to be announced next week.

Rene LaRivee, former Selectman

Rene J. LaRivee of 49 Glen Road, who passed on last Saturday in the Winchester Hospital was one of Wilmington's outstanding citizens, a self-made man who became a member of the Board of Selectmen and served in many honored capacities.

Sixty-five years old, he was born in Lawrence, the son of the late Edward and Gertrude (Lancaster) LaRivee, and moved to Wilmington 23 years ago, from Lynn. He built his own home, on Concord Street, moving into it as he went along. Later, when the Wilmington Industrial Park was established, he refused to sell, while a Selectman, and only after retiring from office did he sell his home and move to his new home on Glen Road.

He was employed as a test mechanic at the General Electric Lynn River works and was a member of IUE Local 201.

A man who was always willing to do more than his share, Mr. LaRivee first became prominent in Wilmington as Director of Civil Defense, a job that was well done, back in the 1950s. He served in other capacities, and finally as a Selectman of Wilmington. After retiring he became a member of the Wilmington Redevelopment Authority, where he also served with distinction.

Mr. LaRivee was a charter member of the Wilmington Lions Club, and had served as president.

He is survived by his wife, Marjorie (Fleg) LaRivee, three children: Mrs. Martin (Jeanne E.) Begonis; Robert C. LaRivee and Mrs. Roger (Elaine M.) Duden, all of Wilmington; a brother, Leo M. LaRivee of Lawrence; two sisters, Mrs. Alice M. Hewitt of Lawrence and Mrs. Rita Bower of New York. Nine grandchildren also survive. He was the father of the late Capt. Rene J. LaRivee, U.S.A.F.

Pall bearers for the funeral were members of the Wilmington Lions Club, Joseph App. Anthony DeLuca, David Elfman, Carl Noelke, James Cain and Frank Darling. The funeral was held yesterday morning from the W.S. Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home, with the Mass of the Resurrection at St. Thomas Church at 10 a.m., celebrated by Rev. Father Francis W. Mackin. Burial was in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

Services today for Nelson (Harry) Huntley

Nelson (Harry) Huntley of 2 Cedar Street and Dania, Florida died at Winchester Hospital on Monday evening following a brief illness.

Seventy-six years of age, he was born in Lowell, the son of the late Nelson E. and the late Nellie (Barnes) Huntley. He had been a resident of Wilmington for over 40 years and had taken up winter residence in Dania, Florida 10 years ago. Prior to his retirement, he was the owner of Huntley's Diner in Wilmington Center.

Mr. Huntley was a member of Friendship Lodge AF and AM Past President and Charter Member of the Wilmington Rotary Club, and a member of the Dania, Florida Rotary Club.

He was married to the late Mary E. (Wehinger) Huntley and is survived by his three children: Mrs. Dorothy V. Cole of Painted Post, New York; Nelson (Frank) Huntley and Mrs. John A. (H. Elizabeth) White, both of Wilmington; his brother, Merrill Huntley of Dover, N.H.; two sisters: Mrs. Bernice Hogg of Wakefield and Mrs. Florence Barton, of Dancut.

Funeral services will be held at the W.S. Cavanaugh & Son Funeral Home, 374 Main Street today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. with Rev. Willis P. Miller of the United Methodist Church officiating. Burial will take place in the family lot in Wildwood Cemetery.

The Barrows 1921 International

AS IT LEFT GILDART'S: The Barrows Truck, with a new coat of paint as it left Gildart's Chevrolet Shop in 1966, on its way to an honorable retirement.

On April 29th the Town Crier had the latest picture of a 1921 truck, now in the Edaville Museum in South Carver, Mass. Old Timers in Wilmington knew that truck well. New-comers - well they might as well learn of it, for it has a wondrous tale to relate.

Herbert C. Barrows was for many years a farmer, contractor, logger and nurseryman, in Wilmington. He bought a farm in 1897 or thereabouts, at the corner of Woburn Street and Lowell Street for $700 - 100 acres of farmland that is mostly the domain of Avco today. Herb sold 70 acres of that land to Avco in 1955 for $70,000.

He had been a school teacher, in Reading, and was a little wiry fellow with considerable athletic prowess. An excellent horseman, he raced sulkies in Wakefield, and Medford, as a youth, and when he became a Wilmington farmer, he raised horses - good horses.

Herb, to his very last days, could tell you the traits of any horse he ever owned. He was also a town official - Selectman - Chairman of the Finance Committee, a post he held for twenty-five years, and he never missed a Town Meeting for fifty years or more.

But this story is about the truck that he owned, and his son Bobby after him.

In 1921 Herb was agent, in Wilmington for International Harvester, and in that year, (or the year before) that company had designed a truck for their agents to use. It was, they later realized, a foolish gesture, for trucks, like other items for sale, must be designed on a universal appeal. So, after a year or so of non-sale, the International Harvester People told their agents they could buy the trucks for about $644 off.

That was when Herb Barrows bought his truck. He not only bought a truck, but bought plenty of spare parts to go with it. There were three blocks, three drive shafts, three this and three that. Herb was going to make that truck last, and he did.

It was a rugged job, to begin with. It had a four cylinder engine, made by the Lycoming Company. There was a two bearing crankshaft, and an Express Body. The headlights were lit by acetylene gas.

The man to drive that truck was Bobby Barrows, who was a sort of man-of-all-work to his father. Bobby, the first the writer remembers him, was driving the Wilmington school bus, back about 1917 - a Reo Express Wagon which belonged to his father. In the winter Bobby would come around in the pung, which was a heavy sort of horse drawn sleigh designed to carry, for instance, logs. There would be a canvas on the pung, and straw in the canvas, into which the children would huddle down to keep warm.

That new truck, in 1921, was a challenge to anyone with mechanical ability - and there were a few of Bobby's friends, in addition to himself who had that ability.

Luke Carter owned an antique auto, and had a garage, and worked part of the time for the Lynn works of General Electric as an inventor. That may not have been the title for Luke's job, but the description fits. He was a handy man, with his hands. He was so handy that he was given a General Electric Managerial Award, and the writer believes, the only man to so receive such an award without being in the G.E. managerial level.

Another who got his hands on that truck was Henny Penny - Henry W. Sargent, who lived in the old Darius Buck house at the corner of Woburn Street and Wildwood Street. Henny wouldn't ride in vehicles himself, but he loved to tinker with things, and he operated a bicycle repair shop.

Luke and Henny Penny and Morris Laffin, the blacksmith, and Bobby got together and started to tinker with that 1921 truck. Just how many things were done the writer does not know - but this much is known - they put on a set of air brakes which would stop that truck on half a dime.

It came equipped with two wheel mechanical brakes. Eddie Sargent, retired Water Works Superintendent was one of the first to drive that truck, and he says he had it up to sixty miles an hour and was wondering what would happen if he had to use those mechanical brakes.

Luke and Bobby and Henny Penny and Morris put in a compressor which operated off the drive shaft, and an air tank which was capable of holding a pretty good pressure. Then they equipped the truck with four wheel brakes, and if Eddie Sargent ever drove that truck again, he wouldn't have to worry about it stopping.

They put in other facilities too, to operate off compressed air. The windshield wipers, for instance, and a new-fangled idea called a self-starter. Yes, -

Bobby would get into the cab and pull one of several ropes he had there. There would be a blast of air and the engine would be going. None of this business of having to crank up the engine, to get it started.

That truck just kept on going, and going, and going. Herb had plenty of spare parts, and after twenty years it was still just like new. So it was after thirty years.

The story is told that the Chief of Police, one time in the 1940's, came out of a meeting with the Finance Committee swearing that the truck would never pass the auto inspection. The Finance Committee was sometimes pretty rough on the town departments, and possibly the Chief of Police had a point. And while it may not have been nice to be angry at the man who was the Chairman of the Finance Committee, if a Chief of Police knew of a vehicle which could not pass the state inspection he was, of course, duty bound to take action.

But that old International always passed inspection. It was the only truck on the road with air brakes - four wheel brakes too. And, after passing its annual inspection it could do something no other truck could do - give off a little snort - as from its nostrils, as it started down the road.

Bobby died in 1963. The truck was still going strong - but only Bobby knew what all the ropes and levers in the cab were for.

Mrs. Robert Barrows sent the truck down to Gildart's Garage (now Wallace Motors) and Larry Gildart had it painted and freshened up, and Mrs. Barrows gave the truck to the Edaville Museum, where it stands today.

It was the second oldest truck in service, in the United States, and presumably in the world, when it was retired in 1963. And there are those who have told the Town Crier that they are planning to take a trip to South Carver one of these days, to have another look at that truck.

BOBBY BARROWS DIDN'T LIKE AVCO

Robert Barrows, who was better known as Bobby Barrows, was a friend of everyone in Wilmington. He and his wife Beulah lived at the corner of Woburn and Lowell Streets.

Bobby always worked for his dad but in his heart he would have liked to have been a railroad engineer. He was always taking trips to railroads in some far part of the country, to inspect some railroad, as part of a railroad enthusiast group.

He was friendly to a fault. The only time the writer ever heard his express displeasure was when his dad sold the 70 acres of land where Avco stands. Bobby didn't like that.

One day, standing with the writer, watching the erection of Avco Bobby said: 'Some day that is going to be the Wilmington Town Hall, and it will be the finest Town Hall in the world!'

Skating Club closes Season

The Wilmington Figure Skating Club recently completed its 1970-71 skating season which consisted of two ten-week periods of instruction plus four practice sessions. During each ten week period, a costume party on ice was held for the enjoyment of the children - Halloween and Valentine's Day. There were also two test dates scheduled in each session plus make up dates for those who were absent.

In order to be able to offer the best possible figure skating program with recognized standards, the W.F.S.C. joined the United States Figure Skating Assn. in 1969 and after serving the required probationary time, received its full membership certificate last September. In June of last year the U.S.F.S.A. sponsored a Judges School in Boston which was attended by three of our club's instructors, each of whom passed the accelerated course and received their certificates. Our official Judging Staff consists of the following Wilmington women: Mrs. Ruth Hebsch, Test Chairman; Mrs. Celia Cornish and Mrs. Shirley Yorks. Each possesses a maximum amount of skating ability and knowledge as well as an unquestionable fairness in executing the difficult task of judging others ability on the ice. We are indeed fortunate to have this fine combination on our staff.

In our second year under the U.S.F.S.A. Basic Badge Test Program the following numbers of badges were earned and awarded during the recently completed skating season and congratulations are in order for all of those who participated - both children and adults.

Beginner Class, Badge No. One, 75 badges were awarded; Novice Second Class, Badge No. Two, 35 badges were awarded; Novice First Class, Badge No. Three, 25 badges were awarded; Novice Free Style, Badge No. Four, 14 badges were awarded; Intermediate Second Class, Badge No. 5, 9 badges were awarded; Intermediate Free Style, Badge No. 7, 1 badge was awarded.

Special congratulations go to our two junior members who have not only been doing a fine job instructing for the W.F.S.C., but have made great strides on their own. Miss Bonnie Hebsch and Miss Holly Rice have passed their Preliminary Dance Tests at the No. Shore Sports Center in Lynn and

NOSEY NANCY

Well now...and how are you these fine days...Sure is fine to have that sunshine back in the Square again...

Ruthie Jackson called us last week to tell us the praises of the Elementary School Band...and we took that with a little bit of reserve, until we saw the Parade on Memorial Day...and listened to their concert in the middle of the Square...and what do you know...she's absolutely right...They are really keen...Go it Kids...and we'll really have something by the time High School Time comes around and congratulations to that Director for his hard work...It shows, there Fellow!

Then those boys with the Highway Department deserve banners for the job they did in cleanup on preparation for the Memorial Day Parade...and then, those new trashbarrels are an addition...and we could use another in front of the Tel and Tel, there, Sterling...How about that one...right!

Now, and then Fred Jaeschke deserves a star with his helpers for cutting all of those school lawns on Friday...and we'll try to note sooner, Fred, so you don't get it all in a bunch...Anyway, thanks...and thanks to you Gerry for that assist!

Now the Vets tell us that there was a lack of interest at decorating the Town Parks for memorial day...and we do grant at the rain on Sunday...but seems if some Town Official should have showed for that...Sorry about that boys, guess we're all at fault...not just the officials...and that gives us a chance to promote the idea that we think would be the best...that is, all of those plaques commemorating each war and it's veterans should be on the Common at sides of the walks and stuff...since that is a Memorial Park and faces the Memorial Library and every kid had to walk across it sooner or later...and then perhaps the Women's Club would take their plants and tend to the Gardens...Let's make that a Town Effort cooperative type...What do you say there, Chairman Carl...possible?

Speaking of the Women's Club and their plants...Did make that Sale at the Nelson Home on WO+ Sale at the Nelson Home on Woburn Street and it was worth while last Thursday...Did a great job there, Gals...

And we noted amongst the gals working on this thing...those smiling countenances of Shirley Callan and Madeline McKie, whom we'd left going strong at the League of Women Voters Annual Meeting the evening before...Wednesday of last week...Isn't May something else there Gals?

Thursday night School Committee Seance involved the discussion of the Individualized Programs...Reading for the Woburn St School...and Math for Shawheen...under sponsorship of the MEC Center...and this really sounds interesting for a Pilot...and sure wish I was going back to School... Lucky Kids that so much exciting is happening there!

That Summer Hat is becoming... Then we tore around on Friday doing odds and ends at the Mall for that Wedding...and the boys decided that if Ma would get the stuff they'd redo the bathroom and kitchen floors for the affair so Ma got the stuff...she never never turns down that kind of an offer...let me tell you...she learned that a long time ago... You rightly bring the stuff home on your back to get it there...let me tell you! Then...

Thanks for the Big Horn... Sounds great!

Sunday Night brought the festivities for Fred Bellissimo, sponsored by the Sons of Italy...and it was wonderful to see that hall filled in honor of this guy who is doing his utmost to help the young people...Dicey did himself proud as the Master of Ceremonies...and we wonder if he missed his calling...and representatives of the School Administration, faculty Selectmen, S of I local and state lodges...and the piece de resistance was when Joannie gave her father praise for the kind of a father he was...and our hat is certainly off to that Girl...Not many youngsters could give their fathers an ovation like that one in public at that age...and Fred's mother and brothers were there with their joy showing...It was a great time for all...

Louis Hailson at the Silver Lake Pharmacy gave the Play Group of the Recreation Commission two stores at the Silver Lake Shopping Center for their headquarters...which is certainly great of Louis...and we coned the Jackson Bros out of a stage we think...now those folks need some folding chairs...so if you know the location of such, please call Ann Whitney on Thurston Avenue and tell her...Got me?

Art Festival for Saturday on Common...Next Wednesday...the Senior Class Banquet...June 12 DeMolay Installation...which we have to take a raincheck for the thanks anyway Boy...Hawaiian Luau for the S of I that night...my prior commitment...and Graduation on Sunday at 4 p.m...Wow...and that is with a wedding thrown in... So back at the Hut...things are beginning to shape up...tho it always looks as if they weren't going to...No 3 Son 'arrived from Kentucky bag and baggage Sunday at 5 am well and healthy...No 5 Son really makes his Mother shine this month...He won the Saltonstall Scholarship at Thompson Academy for the fourth time...for next year...

his Senior...Course we still don't have the other pillar on the front porch painted...but will get to this like tomorrow...we hope...and those Jackson's really are moving out...and if they are not finished it won't be their fault...They certainly can go let me tell you...and this Gal really appreciates that effort... If they aren't done in time for the wedding, it certainly won't be their fault...Thanks Fellas...Now...this week the message is...Everything in its Time...for that Time! So provided the Time doesn't get this one on the next two weeks schedule...She'll see you next week...Meanwhile...Have a good weekend...and Love ya!

Cleveland-Cliffs, Diamond Crystal Merge

H. Stuart Harrison, President of Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Company and Charles F. Moore, Chairman of the Board of Diamond Crystal Salt Company, recently announced the signing of a letter of intent approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies to merge Diamond Crystal into Cleveland-Cliffs.

Under the terms of the letter of intent, Cleveland-Cliffs will exchange one share of its common stock for each three outstanding shares of Diamond Crystal Salt common. The proposed transaction is subject to further investigation of legal, tax, accounting, engineering and other matters as well as approval by the Boards of Directors of both companies and by Diamond Crystal Salt's shareholders of a mutually acceptable definitive agreement.

Harrison and Moore stated that Diamond Crystal Salt is expected to be operated under present management as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Cleveland-Cliffs. Its headquarters would remain in St. Clair, Michigan.

Diamond Crystal is the third largest salt producer in the United States and produces salt by all three basic methods: Solution (or hydraulic) mining; solar evaporation; and conventional (or shaft) mining. With headquarters in St. Clair, Diamond Crystal operates other salt-producing facilities in Akron, Ohio; Jefferson Island, Louisiana; and Long Island, Bahamas. In addition, the company's packet products division operates plants in Wilmington and Moore, Oklahoma, producing individual service containers for salt, pepper and other condiments.

Diamond Crystal's sales and earnings for its most recent fiscal year ended March 31, 1971 where $39,760,000 and $2,863,000 respectively. Earnings per share for this period were $2.02 on 1,420,400 shares outstanding.

Cleveland-Cliffs is a major iron ore mining and processing company with interests in Great Lakes shipping, forest products and non-ferrous and energy minerals.

Headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, the company operates open pit mines and pellet production facilities in Michigan and Canada, and open pit mine in Minnesota. It is participating in the development of a new iron ore project in Australia.

A small leak in a water pipe can be stopped in an emergency as follows: place a flat rubber or leather gasket over the leak and hammer a piece of sheet metal to fit over the gasket. Secure both to the pipe with a clamp.

A small leak under low pressure is sometimes stopped by shutting off the water and then embedding the pipe in richly mixed Portland cement mortar or concrete. Broken sewer pipes can be similarly repaired.

A small hole in a cast-iron pipe may be tamped for a screw plug.

A.B. Sweezy, Inc., home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., 658-2051 always carries a large stock of high grade building materials and lumber. Our inventory includes brand name merchandise for all kinds of repairs and improvements. Visit our new carpet department where there is a display of Ozie, indoor and outdoor carpeting and Ludlow Carpeting in many colors and patterns. We will be pleased to handle your installation.

Helpful Hint: Extreme care should be used in handling acids. Never use an acid in a water system or waste pipe without professional advice.

Bob Maloney Retires

ROBERT MALONEY: Retired Mail Carrier, sits in the sun on the front steps of his home and meditates.

Twenty five years ago hardly anyone knew of the disease, let alone the spelling of its name. Today it is a common word in the vocabulary of the citizenry.

Robert Maloney, veteran mail carrier of Wilmington has retired because of emphysema.

His physicians will not say it comes from the smoking of cigarettes. They will not say what causes the disease, other than to say that people who do not smoke also get it. Emphysema is an aggravating affliction, but between bouts there is nothing wrong, says Maloney. His appetite is good, he sleeps well.

Bob Maloney started with the Post Office Department after he got out of the Army Air Corps at the end of World War II. He started as a railway mail clerk, and lived in Dorchester.

Then he bought his present home on Birchwood Road, and fourteen years ago he transferred from the railway mail service to a job as Rural Free Delivery carrier. He has held that job ever since, serving people in the Hathaway Acres area, and other parts of North Wilmington, in what is now RFD 3, Wilmington.

Wilmington and the Share Program

Dr. Paul Strudler, at a recent meeting with the Wilmington School Committee lauded both the School and Drug Committee for being willing to try new programs to overcome the problem of Drug Abuse in Wilmington.

At one point in his remarks, Strudler said the Drug Committee had been active to the point of calling him twenty-four hours a day if they had questions.

Strudler also stated that Wilmington had received more than their monies worth of services from SHARE because it has been so active. Young people have been referred to Anabasis House in Lowell for rehabilitation and the school system has had the resources of SHARE to draw on.

Share will work in several primary areas Strudler told the committee: Those areas are preventive education, crisis intervention and rehabilitation.

Wilmington is involved in all these programs, and at the present time a Satellite Center is being planned to offer an alternative to the use of drugs, through arts and crafts. The Drug Committee and Mrs. Patricia Gagnon of the Wilmington School System have been involved in obtaining the Satellite Center for the town. Several young people are currently working with the new director of the center, John Fronk, to get the center in order.

The Town of Wilmington is cited by Strudler as a model town in his talks to young people in other areas. These young people often feel that no changes can be made. Wilmington is the example of a town that shows it cares to make the necessary changes needed to stem the tide of drug abuse now and in the future.

Strudler's remarks were very complimentary to the efforts of both the School and Drug Committee who have worked together on this problem.

INCREASED SOCIAL SECURITY

In approving PL 92-5 on March 1, 1971, President Nixon increased the public dept limit and amended the Social Security Act. Among other things, the Social Security Act Amendments.

Increased regular old age, survivors and disability insurance benefits by 10 percent, effective January 1, 1971.

Granted a 5 percent increase in the special benefits payable to certain individuals, age 72 and over, who are not insured for regular benefits. This increase also effective January 1, 1971.

The Social Security Administration advises that the increased rates will be reflected in the June dated check for May 1971. Later, in June, a supplemental check will cover the increases due from January 1 through April 30.

For those on the rolls on the date of approval of the Social Security increases, pensions or DIC will not be reduced or discontinued until January 1, 1972.

YOUR Pharmacist SPEAKS
by Louise

Rheumatism too often makes money for the quack who promises relief from pain.

If only people would remember that what most quacks and quack remedies relieve is the victim of his money, many in the world would be happier.

If you suspect the onset of arthritis, seek the aid of a physician who is competent. Do not even listen to friend's advice; while they may be well meaning, what worked for them may not work for you.

Do not use "wonder" drugs. What your doctor prescribes will ultimately be of the greatest benefit.

Fill those prescriptions at Silver Lake Pharmacy, 52 Main St., Tel. 658-4617. Cosmetics including Clairol Whitman and Candy Cupboard Chocolates. Greeting Cards.

Helpful Hint: Worries tend to aggravate difficulties associated with arthritis and rheumatism.

INSURANCE INSIGHTS

By Lloyd Bender

More Facts About Health Ins.

Do you know how fast the health insurance business has grown? Since 1920, there has been a fantastic increase! In 1940, only 20 million people were protected from medical expense.

Today, the figure is nearly ten times that size! Almost 80 percent of the public has some type of health insurance. Health insurance has a large number of different types of policies. There is no standard policy form. This allows coverage to be adapted to fit the needs of each person.

The lack of standardization allows companies to experiment with policy improvements. Many of these experimental improvements have become very popular with the public. When this happens, most companies will add the new provision to their policies. A number of new contracts have become popular in the last ten years. Ask your agent about them.

Boy Scout Program for June 5th

KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL DAY, JUNE 5TH

5th on "Keep America Beautiful Day"

Project Soar - a Boy Scout project initiated at the request of the president of the United States - reaches its half-way point on June

Scouts from the towns of Wilmington, Billerica and Tewksbury will be attending the Wamesit Camporee in the Billerica Town Forest next weekend and will participate in beautification and conservation projects.

Scouts will be working for the Project Soar Patch which requires a total of 12 hours of conservation and beautification work in the community. Six hours of this work will be laid out for accomplishment during the Camporee. The balance of qualification hours will be completed either finishing the projects begun next Saturday or on separate projects developed by their own troops.

Projects being worked on Saturday will include two new pioneer style bridges over Jones Brooks and repair of an existing bridge; completion of a nature walk of approximately one-half mile to be used by local citizenry and cleaning up of downed timber and shrubs for areas to be used for picnicking. In addition there will be a knife and axe yard for those wishing to qualify for Knife and Axe, Paul Bunyan Awards, and to assist further in clearing the entry to the forest.

Dear Larz:

Hope you can find a corner of your paper to say "Hats off" to all the kids who walked Sunday, May 9th, including a few adults who we saw.

We are just a couple of observant citizens who watched them pass our house. First you saw one or two and the next minute they seemed to be coming out of the trees. Regardless of one or one hundred, they were orderly and merry as one could be. Some singing, others just listening to their radios, not minding the rain drops, wet feet or wet pants. Just marching, all for one cause.

Congratulations kids, I'm sure everyone was proud of you, no matter how many miles you walked. We are proud to know you are interested in others and in the affairs of your country. Also showing everyone there are still some good kids around.

"Y" CAMP WAKANDA
EXPECTS BUSY SEASON

Camp Wakanda, the day camping program conducted by the Wakefield YMCA and located on Stiles Pond in Boxford, again will offer a camping experience for nearly 200 boys and girls 7-15 years of age during each of its four two-week periods.

The program is open to youngsters from Wilmington, Wakefield, Stoneham, Reading, No. Reading, Lynnfield, Melrose, and Winchester.

The camp tuition this summer will include transportation, insurance, overnight programs and cook-outs. The popular trips will again be optional at an additional cost.

Dr. John McCarthy, chairman of the Camp Committee of the Wakefield YMCA, has announced that advance registrations for Camp Wakanda has reached 22% of capacity.

Camp busses have scheduled pick-up places in Wakefield, Lynnfield, Stoneham, Reading, North Reading, Melrose, Winchester and Wilmington.

Dr. John McCarthy, chairman of the camp committee, announces that the camp tuition fee will be reduced when more than one child in a family attends the same camp period, and for those who can provide their own transportation to camp. These options are fully explained in the camp brochure which will be sent upon request.

Dr. McCarthy also announces that most of last year's counselors will be returning this season.

Application is open to selected 13 to 15 year old boys and girls in the popular counselor-in-training program which will be directed by Richard G. Kelley, physical education instructor in Wakefield School system.

Camp brochures will be sent upon request, and although presently there are openings in all periods, applications will be honored in the order received.
